

KENT EXPLORERS NEWS December 2009

We are looking forward to our Xmas party day this month, to be held on 5th December. This is a special day and we hope to see all our regular attendees and members. As well as a range of activity tables we have a choice of three workshops for you this month: ceramics, music and woodcraft; there will be a book club but no Arts Award club - because our activities will be followed by our Christmas party.

Click on the highlighted links to visit our web site pages for further event information.

Music: INDIAN TABLA DRUMMING AND PERCUSSION, Tabla is a sophisticated and versatile form of drumming, increasingly used in much contemporary Western music, especially where evocative sounds and improvisation are needed.

Ceramics: Make a table light holder from clay, the perfect table centrepiece.

Woodcraft: Wooden whistle making, using simple tools and wood craft techniques.

Book Club is a parent led club and it will run at the parents and attendees convenience.

If you and your child/ren wish to stay for the party please bring along either a large packet of crisps, a cake or biscuits to share with the group, and enough extra food and drink for your family. Xmas cake and a small present will be provided for each child.

All our activities are at Beechwood Sacred Heart School, Tunbridge Wells unless otherwise stated.

Any young person interested in any topic is invited to join us, but we would appreciate advance booking by email by a parent/guardian as our workshops do get full.

Students & Parents, please email to reserve a place and request a booking form: nagcwestkent@hotmail.com

Teachers, please email for information on special offers, and a specially prepared school ad/booking form with details appropriate to your school:
